RURAL EDUCATION SUMMIT

FEB 23 & 24 2026

Across rural communities, education is a powerful force for opportunity, stability, and growth.

The Rural Education Summit brings together local leaders, educators, and advocates to share ideas, build partnerships, and strengthen the future of public education. Grounded in place and driven by purpose, this gathering is a space to elevate rural voices, exchange solutions, and work toward a future where every student, no matter their zip code, has access to the opportunities they deserve.

PRESENTED BY

Coalition of OHIO Rural and Appalachian Schools

The Coalition of OHIO Rural and Appalachian Schools (CORAS) is a group of superintendents across the state dedicated to strengthening education and expanding opportunities for all children in Rural and Appalachian Ohio. As part of the state's public education system, they work with partners across Ohio on a mission to advocate for the children, educators, and families in the regions they represent, and to remind decision-makers that when every school is supported, we are all stronger.

This summit was created as an extension of that, where our members can connect with one another, engage directly with state leaders, and build relationships with companies and organizations that can help them bring new ideas, resources, and opportunities back to their districts.
